2.0 Business

2.1 Council Handbook Included in the Council packet was council rule templates from other cities for review and comparison. The handbook was discussed page by page with questions being asked and answered and suggestions being discussed. One suggestion was to include a voting and motion section in policies and procedures. Serial meetings and ethical violations were also discussed. One member asked about posting of meetings. Melissa stated she posts at the post office, here at City Hall, on the web site and at the Paisley Merc. One member would like to see the City information on the large board at the post office. Melissa stated the City's board was around the corner and by placing them on the large board we would be taking up space reserved for the community.
